Lost in the cages the time honored cell
Window for viewing a hanging on the hill
I wish I could see the crack in my chain
Then I would know what to do with you
Apollo and me we go drink to the past
When chariots did ride from the sun
I wish I could see the crack in my chain
Then I would know what to do with you
I've just seen the face that keeps me wakened every night
Crucify sanctify I'm gonna bring it back to life
Na na na
Na na na
The chain will remain
The chain will not break
Connected by love
Connected by hate
You know you know it will not will not
Will not will not break
