This situation's ball and chain
Ciao bella I speak these words in vein
You say I'm selfish thinking only of me this time
If I can't love myself I can't let you be mine

Take time and breathe us in
Let these memories last forever like you and I
Yes you and I
Yes you and I

Holding on
Why are we Holding on Holding on till my
Voice comes clean

Every moment I'm breaking down
Its hell without you
And I'm burning from the inside out
Thinking you're the only one that's dealing with all this pain
Ignorance is holding your hand
Cause I'm the one who's gone insane

Take time and breathe us in
Let these memories last forever like you and I
Yes you and I
Yes you and I

Holding on
Why are we Holding on Holding on till my Voice comes clean
