Gonna start dressing
Finer things
Maybe just nothing
Maybe just a dream
You are gonna find him one day knockin at your door
Hes not the hero any more
He says baby dont you want me in your life
You tell him what is wrong, not right
Dont She La
Dont she look happy
Dont She La
Dont she look happy
Gonna start living
Fantasy
Maybe just nothing
Maybe just a dream
Fire in the blue sky when he hits you in the mouth
This the war and not the warning
He says baby I love you wont you stay
You say good-bye to him too late
Dont She La
Dont she look happy
Dont She La
Dont she look happy
Dont she look happy now that hes gone away from here
Hes gone away he died they say an awful way
It was attack of the heart
You have started something big by cuttin through the man
There was a sign you heard a calling
He says baby I dont wanna die today
You say so long man its too late
