I would like to see
All that no one knows
Just to see the reason
We must feel alone

Walking on my path
I don't do much more than that
Where to put my mind
Lord show me a sign
Show me suffering
Humankind can bring
Show me what's inside
So I can see things right

Show me

I woke up to you
In a love and groove
I fell off my mind
Running round inside
Love has such an energy
Guaranteed to keep the world afloat
Here here
Here here

When I start to run inside
I must still come out
I must hold my head up high
And know all these things
They can change
With love

They can change
With love
They can change
With love
