I sit in silence underneath the moonlight
A thousand stars are melting in my eyes
I've hidden secrets and lost my sense of living
And everything I've always needed

You are the one, baby, come here
Feel my heart beat
You are the one, baby, come here

I'm giving you everything
I'm falling in love again, oh, baby
I'm giving you everything
I'm falling in love again, oh

I feel so lonely underneath the moonlight
My sense of blame is hurting me so much
I want you baby, to tell you what I'm feeling
This love is rising deep inside of me

You are the one, baby, come here
Feel my heart beat
You are the one, baby, come here

I'm giving you everything
I'm falling in love again, oh, baby
I'm giving you everything
I'm falling in love again, oh

I'm giving you everything
