One more boy running through this world
One more voice got to be heard
All this noise, all this fight, bury my hair, wait to expire
I need a sign, I need a spark, a human connection
Illuminate dark, I'll hit the streets
Open my eyes, the chance encounter, open to prize
I'll be heavier filled as an ocean ,
I'll be heavier turns like an ocean

I see motion, I see devotion
A face in the clouds steals my emotion
I'll be your thought, I'll be your pearl
And you be the sun, and I'll be the world
If just for a moment we play with the motion
We was supposed to read on this pavement
, make your loss, my heart will not fade
Now I don't give a fuck if this world would end
I'll be heavier filled as an ocean ,
I'll be heavier turns like an ocean

lot I feel souls , streets and take her hand
lot I feel souls , streets and take her hand.

Thanks to Andrei
