All alone in an empty room
Scattered pictures on the floor.
Slowly drifting in this emptiness,
It's you-you I'm waiting for..

In the silence of the darkness,
I hear voices whispering your name.
In my dreams, I see a light
So beautiful a burning flame.

Everything I feel,
Secrets I'll never reveal,
Darling I love you still.

Like a child I am lost,
On a journey still unknown.
From afar your love surrounds me,
In my heart I'm never alone.

In your eyes a memory,
The memories never fade.
Night approaches- shadows everywhere
I feel you. I'm not afraid.

Everything I feel,
Secrets I'll never reveal,
Darling I love you..
