why is it when your eyes meet mine i seem to melt away?
why is it when you're tryina be near my heart beat seem not to adhere?

why do my days seems so complete? just waiting again for our eyes to meet feels like the world seem to confide the feeling just abide..

with just a glimpse of you in this crowd takes me up to the highest clouds why do these words wont come naturally whenever you're talkin to me?

why is it when you here with me the craziness won't just set me free wondering if you have known this feeling i kept so long so hear me out in this song

Chorus:

with a glance of your eyes oh, my heart starts to rise taking me to a ride up in the happiest skies

with a glance of your eyes caught up and I'm enticed yes, so many times
a miracle in my eyes

got the meaning of life filling it with the colors that i can fantasize

everything is alright
with a glance of your eyes nothing else in this world can make this feeling alive...

Oh baby why when I'm with you my whole world unfolds a perfect change? and baby why when we're so close the feeling just goes and freely grows...?

just when it feels to be so wrong you just reappear and i'm back being strong you are the warmth, the flame, the light that keeps me shining bright...

(Repeat Chorus)

outro:
your eyes, look into mine and i just wish after all of these times you will be mine...
