"Beautiful Last Hour"

I eat gazelles in my sleep, I'm a lion in the streets, I'm rebel child
A loose cannon in the trent, camouflage no scent, I'm a warrior
And if you did know I'm addicted to my prey,
I never hesitated away from against the grain
But you were really lucky, broke me down to the core your a predator

When it comes to you, I fall to my knees, I'm only human

I fell in love with a dagger and even though I bleed to death I don't mind.
You make it a beautiful last hour.

Aphrodite in the heart but Medusa in the eyes So rock solid. Played me for the worst know I'm living with this curse, I'm your violin.
When it comes to you, I fall to my knees, I'm only
human

I fell in love with a dagger and even though I bleed to death I don't mind.
You make it a beautiful last hour.
