Ignorance is surely bliss
And I'd like to stay that way

Sometimes you need to be neglected
To see in green instead of grey

Someone I be there to let you in
Even if you're truly stuck outside
I won't forget you again
Promise I won't be swallowed by my pride
again
Again

Haven't felt this way in so long
So used to seeing these things in grey
Sometimes there's need for reflection Step back and see just who you are yea

Someone I be there to let you in
Even if you're truly stuck outside
I won't forget you again
Promise I won't be swallowed by my pride
again
Again
