We use to eat sandwiches but the bread was moulded Freestyle and gameble hunk was the coldest MAN...

Theese memories I just try to hold em cuz its so hard for me to live inside the moment the past in the past i should let it go I got some problems on my chest but I wont let it show cuz where im bout to go,i may never know thats why i give the fans my all at every show thankfull for every fan i get no designated driver but man im lit at first major labels diddnt understand this shit but now they sayin im the man they should gamble with.

(im livin for every moment im livin in every minuite the money wont last the reason why ima spend it and i am just tryin to find a cloud that i can fly and live inside my dreams till the day that i die) I use to wait to sell crack on the first now my names ringin like the bells on the church smillin but really it just covers up the hurt the fact that my closet full of r.i.p shirts we made it, the truth is its amazin first class trip from nashville to vegas whoda thought a tree would bloom up outta the pavement go from bein the under dogg to everybodys favorite but still i stand alone in this empty house and heres the only thing i can think about my middle school teacher said id never make it out life was easier when i was just running a paper route i got a little girl that just turned three but its been a year since her mother let her see me but meanwhile they all bumpin my cd all eyes on me all i can do is be me (im livin for every moment im livin in every minuite
full of new life gotta new plan my ex girlfriend got a new man im proud of her i just hope that he treats her right meanwhile im just really tryin to live my life and thats the truth,truth is that i hardly mind the hardest fear for me to swallow is to swallow pride speakin of fears let me tell you what the doctor said said if i dont change soon, ima walkin dead so im really tryin live and i learn gave sarah all i had and aint get shit in return did everything i could for her and them kids i really tried so i dont understand how she could run around and lie (im livin for every moment im livin in every minuite
