Beautiful lady, she had her baby
And she walked ten miles.
Through the snow with the wind blowing cold
She said, gotta get away for a while
Through the summer 'til the end of October
Heaven knows how she tried
Oh angel, she cried Gabriel, can you keep me in line?
Oh, hear 'em sing.

I've got your fire, I've got your fire
I've got you fired up.
[x2]

Ooh ooh...

Oh Sadie, she had her mind made up fast.
Singing "Let It Be", she took her chance at another pass
Running through the streets, she was the wild beauty queen
Oh angel, she cried Gabriel, can you keep me in line?
Oh hear 'em sing

I've got your fire, I've got your fire,
I've got you fired up.
[x2]

Ooh love, take what your heart can take Ooh love, take what your heart can't take [x2]

Ooh ooh...

I've got your fire, I've got your fire,
I've got you fired up.
[x4]

Ooh ooh...
