[Intro]

#Yeah (x16)

[Verse 1]

Only if you want to, we can be alone I got a place we can run to I'm just being real I aint tryna pull a stunt, blew up in the past Tryna put them pieces into one, piece them into one every piece of you I want There aint a part of me that doesn't think that you're the one
I know you wanna try I'm only tryna bring it out, I'm only tryna find a way to make you see it now... Baby.

And I know you've been hurt in the past, Looking through the barrier; you need to burst from the glass
And I can be your carrier I'll let go of the basket, of them
Other girlies, I'ma be there till the casket.

I aint that kinda guy but yeah I'm taking my chances So can I get an answer? You can be there till the end of the world
Remember that girl on a level I think I'm ready to settle but it's Only if you,

[Chorus]

Only if you want to... (x2)

I'm not afraid to settle down, we can do this thing right now.
Only if you want to,

Yeah (x16)

[Verse 2]

Only if you want to,

Make me the luckiest guy alive,
All I can really do is just hope when I fire lines
And thinking bout it lets me know I can admire life You can rely on me I will never deny your kind and maybe that's why you're right About every other guy in the city, I'm standing up You wont hear another lie there from me; so don't assume things when I put my phone into busy tone.
You've been through guys but now you're rolling with clicky,
A river full of bars asking you to go up on clickys flow.
And yeah I got a mad one, there's other fish in the sea but I'm only tryna bag one.
And I aint the kind of guy to come back, but I'm back.
So I'ma let off all my feelings exact on the track.
And you can be there till the end of the world
Remember that girl on a level I think I'm ready to settle
but it's Only if you,

[Chorus]

[Bridge]

What ever you want,
I got it right here in my pocket,
I'm talking bout your heart trust me honey I wont drop it And I'ma hold it tight until the angel comes to stop it What ever you need,
Its alright I know you need it
Time for me to change and yeah girl you can keep it And trust me we can be there till the end but only if you,

[Chorus]
