Hook

Your lips are super kissable Because you are so magical you made going yeah I think I 'm on to you I think I'm inlove with the girl next door oh yeah turn me up, turn me up

Verse 1:

New school, New start ... and new beginning turnin out be the best day that I'm livin gorgeous ladies everywhere all that I'm seeing Its high school and I can't avoid any suspension but a lady of wild beauty got my attention I'm blown away and all I need is some injection In mind all voices sayin "she is the one" it's like, the prophecy of my life juz begun hey pretty lady you made me going crazy will you be my girl and will you be my little daisy? my life before lookin black and lookin hazy until I met you girl my heart is beating for you baby

Verse 2:

she got a sexy body hotter than wasabi freaky, geeky, meany, bitchy are what players think but none of them are right because her heart is lovable, admirable, amiable, incredible, adorable I like the way she walk It's chill to hear her talk imma tell you what this girl what she like wat she love who she is and her persona she like a magic takes your sadness she a goddess, makes you jawless like a genie that grants your wishes! she's so tan and and mind blowin'

I've been reachin
I can reach her she my long time crush that I've been wanting for imma tell you homies she's the girl next door this is an L.O.V.E

I can't believe it baby I'm love sick and I want you be my pretty lady my life is turning colorful because you are so beautiful you smile like Mona Lisa fine looking seÑorita

I wanna take you out like caledonia, Barcelona to a place that even called the super little Micronesia
