1

I'm honestly not gonna lie
Explore you for a little while
Aware of records on your file
And I want you so bad cuz I know you so good
Your image lingers in my mind
Which is infected by your pride
Continue with another rhyme
Ooooooooooooooh

Chorus:

And its driving me crazy
That feeling is blazing
I need you to keep me high
So please love me or hate me
Take me or break me
Just don't lie to me baby don't ever lie

2

Of jealousy don't be afraid
If I didn't trust I wouldn't date
I'll give you freedom to create
I'll support you on that I will filter the crap
Serenity may devastate
I would prefer to be insane
And get a winner in my plate
Ooooooooooooooooooh

Chorus:

Cuz it driving me crazy
That feeling was blazing
I need you to keep me high
But I quit my anticipation
Finally facing
It was real and you had me for blind

3

The way I'm sipping on a red wine
I feel the hit so then I look fine
To not be thinking of your picking and of your lie
Cuz it kinda hurt you know
I realize we different but you strive
Looking for something that you not gonna find
So then you stab me in a back with a knife

And the pain is tend to grow
It was gonna happen anytime soon anyway
Moon was the last doom
Emotional zoom
I really need a broom to take all of this out my head
Appearance was getting sad
My word let it to the end
I'm so tired of all that shit
And I'm like " baby I miss you so
And he's like " can't take this anymore
And we like " we gotta bring it back
But when you cheated on me you cheated on yourself
All people make mistakes
Don't waste no time for hate
I live with no regrets
But the memories still in my head

Chorus:

It used to driving me crazy
That feeling was blazing
You knew how to treat me right
Days were lost in a maze but nights were amazing
Maybe we'll reunite sometime in another life
