

Jess Mills

"Vultures"

Visit "Vultures" on MotoLyrics.com

They're circling 'round but I need more time
My freedom is priceless and so is my peace of mind
I shouldn't have to pay for mine
If they were bees 'round my baby I would kill them
But they hover in packs and what a sorry excuse for men
There should be no excusing them

[Chorus]

Cause they are dragging my faith out of me
It was not for the taking
Look the vultures are perching
And they are dragging my faith out of me
Everything I believed in
Look out in the waters they're lurking

Quietly violent like a bad dream
They pursue day and night
They never rest like a hunting beast
A shadow in the corner of my eye and at the heels of my feet
Do they see any good in all this somehow?
I could charge them for murder cause they're killing my spirit now
It shouldn't be allowed

[Chorus x2]

Cause they are dragging my faith out of me
It was not for the taking
Look the vultures are perching
And they are dragging my faith out of me
Everything I believed in
Look out in the waters they're lurking

Visit Jess Mills page on MotoLyrics.com, to get more lyrics and videos.