Destroy It's so simple
Destroy I want to tear you down
Destroy So you'd don't make no sound
Destroy

I want you to crash and burn
I'm waiting for the right moment
In an instant
You'd be falling
You wouldn't see it coming

Destroy It's so simple
Destroy I want to tear you down
Destroy So you'd don't make no sound
Destroy

I want devastation
I want to destroy your reputation
I'd walk over your wreckage
You'd make no sound
You'd be bound
By your own mistakes
Then I could take your place
My rightful place
Ripped to shreds
Down, down low There comes an end

Destroy It's so simple
Destroy I want to tear you down
Destroy So you'd don't make no sound
Destroy

I'd destroy you
Torn to pieces
I'd take your place
My rightful place
