Open the door
step outside how many doors do you open a day how many doors do you close a day when you want to see you're lover when you want to see you're friend

(chorus)
Some doors are bright and some doors are dark
those doors in the night
who's knocking is it right

How can you tell which one to go through sometimes it works sometimes it's hell sometimes you can't get out once you're in sometimes you pound it and no one opens it.

(chorus)
Some doors are bright and some doors are dark
those doors in the night

When it's right it will open and you won't have to push too hard when it's locked, feels like stagnant air You'll know when you have the right door cause everything will seem to glow some doors have to be closed forever and a day the hardest thing to see but will set you free

(repeat)

who's knocking is it right.....
