another night will kill the day i don't know where to go from here the jukebox is on it's last leg the line's out the door and the people are wanting to sing come on baby come dance with me feel the beat forget everything nobody's trusting the head of our nation everything's changing rapidly remember back in the day when we used to sing along to anything you say the end is on it's way and you don't know what you're gonna do think back girl you've gotta relate it's all in your head and you're afraid it's already too late come on baby come dance with me none of us know what we're gonna do we're simple people with expectations maybe a good time is all you need

remember back in the day
when we used to sing along to anything

why is everybody so hung up on their fears?
why can't we just get along
and have a drink and sing a song?
the days of holding back my friend,
they are no longer here.
focus on the moment baby, you've gotta put an end to your fears.

then again
everyone can see you you're on top of it all and your falling down.
if you'll wait for me
then i may jump too;
the things i think
seem to not be true.

why is everybody so hung up on their fears?
you've gotta put an end to your tears in the moment baby
