

Oh No Not Stereo "Fifteen"

Visit "Fifteen" on MotoLyrics.com we're all insane and it doesn't even matter and you'll live a long time if you'll just understand we're all the same and it's starting to matter and you'll live alone forever, I won't be mad you're my favorite, fifteenth one in a row and you'll know it until the day I let you go it's all a game and you win just to shatter it the broken pieces don't mean it can't be saved i feel your pain and it doesn't matter if the whole time you've been thinking you will escape

today is the day that i have to let you know
