I need something true
Some sort of breast plate
Something you
Can't get through
Something you'll hate

[Chorus:]
So take your best shot
Give it to me why not
Who cares about
Grief and sorrow
When you're behind
Cupid's bow and arrow

I know what you think
You think I'll sink
You think that I'm soft
And I'm lusting
And naive and trusting
And someday I'll shrink

[Chorus]

Straight through my heart
Straight through my heart
Straight through my heart

I've had enough
I'm calling your bluff
Everybody can be fooled
And think
That you're an angel
But I know the truth
You're a devil

[Chorus]
