CHORUS

I found you, you found me
We're here for each other and we'll always be
I found you, you found me
We're all each other's angels and we work for free

We come together so naturally
Each other's savior, sometimes hard to see
But for everyone the time will come
When it's all clear to see
That when any two souls keep company
It was totally meant to be

REPEAT CHORUS

Chance ain't an option, it just can't be
We choose who we work with Conscious or unconsciously
It may be long, it may be short
How long it lasts ain't the key
Which is total soul evolution, to be who you choose to be

REPEAT CHORUS

It could be that special girl or guy
Or a homeless man on the street
A rock star or grocery clerk
ANYONE's cool to meet!
I found you, you found me
We're here for each other and we'll always be

Later in lifetime, when it's clear to see
You'll bathe in the wonder of what's come to be
And how everyone you've ever met has caused what's Come to be
While working with you to make you who you are, and
Who you choose to be

REPEAT CHORUS

You know that we're in this together
It's gonna be that way forever
Chill with that; man, it's pretty clever!
A really cool way to be, for you and me
