I don't have words to tell you how I'm feeling
I don't think any language can
At times like these silence is appealing
Somehow I know you understand

And if I ever lose my hearing
If I ever lose my sight
If all my five senses leave
I know we'd be alright
Cause it seems your heart is a part of mine

So this is how it feels to be breathless
When someone walks out of a room
Stay by me, we can be timeless
Less than forever is too soon

And if we ever lose our hearing
If we ever lose our sight

If all our five senses leave
I know we'd be alright
Cause it seems your heart is a part of mine

I've sorted through every word I know to use
And looked for beauty to define
I haven't found what I want to say to you
But I'll try for the rest of my life
Lets try for the rest of our lives

And if we ever lose our hearing
If we ever lose our sight
If all our five senses leave
I know we'd be alright
Cause it seems your heart is a part of mine
