There is no future
There is no past
There is only right now
The song of the soul
Can shape all our goals
Let's listen and save everyone

We're in this together
Each of us as one
So let's come together
And watch our will be done

CHORUS

~Cause there's too much fighting
Too much lying for me (in and around the world)
Does it have to be? (in and around the world)
We all end up losing
It's so confusing to me (in and around the world)
Do we choose to see (in and around the world)
That maybe one day we can all change it
And then make that day finally come

There is no right
There is no wrong
There is only compromise
We can create, not separate
A world that'll work for us all
Isolation kills us, since we're all one
We're life, love and freedom
That's god, in everyone

REPEAT CHORUS

Our best hope is a spiritual solution
Release all fear and let love revive evolution
