

Oh, Sleeper

Watergate
Scenery twisted
As i slip off the back of the rock
That's so hard to hold on to
And what a day you left me
You went through the back door
You knew there was no hope

And i wish you were back there
To see what's going on
And i wish you could be here
To see what's going on

Watergate
Serious twist it
As i stab at the back weave of thread
Form fabric of existence
And what a way
You let be
You went through the black door

And i wish you were back there
To see what's going on
And i wish you could be here
To see what's going on

And i wish you could be here
