Put on the breaks,
Right now we're driving down a dead end road in the dark
This shit is lame
I want a taste of life without this thorn in my side

It's always been the same
Never quite together, never quite apart,
And as much as I love you
We're going round and around and it's wearing me down

So it's closure now
This time it's over and out
And I know it's real tough but desire's not enough
To relinquish away the doubt
Yes, it's closure now,
This time it's over and out

Get out my way,
Hush yourself don't say another word the damage is done
It's too little too late,
This isn't working, and now we're both hurting drop the case,
This ain't the one, and our time is done Cos as much as I love you, we're going round and around it's wearing me down

So it's closure now
This time it's over and out
And I know it's real tough but desire's not enough
To relinquish away the doubt
Yes, it's closure now,
This time it's over and out

We're a million worlds apart,
It shouldn't ever have to be this hard
You're not who I had you down to be at all So don't come running after me, I won't answer your call

So it's closure now
This time it's over and out
And I know it's real tough but desire's not enough
To relinquish away the doubt
Yes, it's closure now,
This time it's over and out
