Drinking Jameson,
Thinking about what we could have had.
'Cause you know that nothing seems to help,
Everything just makes me so damn sad.
Drinking Jameson,
Thinking about what we could have had.
'Cause you know that nothing seems to help,
Everything just makes me so damn sad.

I don't want to be anywhere else that I could be right
now,
I've made my bed with the things I've said, so now I'll go lay down,
I miss you,
But it's just part of our lives to miss the things we never had.
I don't want to be anywhere else that I could be right
now,
I've made my bed with the things I've said, so now I'll
go lay down,
I miss you,
But it's just part of our lives to miss the things we never had.
