"Runaway"

I've said all I can say
And it doesn't seem to change anything
It's meant to be this way
I guess you have to lose everything
Before you can appreciate
What it is you had
And I won't let this happen again

Runaway from love, runaway from love go
Go, just go

Run away, just go away

I've paid all I can pay
And it doesn't seem to help anything
I'll save it for a rainy day
Sometimes nothing is everything
Is this really my fate
Living in the past
And I won't let this happen again

Just go, go
Runaway from love, go

Runaway, just go away

What you needed isn't what I wanted to do
There's no coming back
Dreams are bleeding from all the lies coming true
Wish I could take them back

Run away from love, go
Go, just go
