Tiny insects in my hair
Tiny insects everywhere
Tiny insects in my pants
Watching insects make romance

Insects make me make me want to dance dance dance
They make want to dance dance dance
Those insects make me want to dance

Flying insects everywhere
Flying insects buzzing buzzing buzzing through the air
Just like little diamonds in the sky
Insects buzzing in my eye

Buzzing insects make me want to dance dance dance
They make me want to dance dance dance
Those insects make me dance dance dance
They make me want to dance dance dance
Those insects make me want to dance

Insects crawling all around
Insects squirming in the ground
Insects gooey squeaky chewy
Should I eat them, no

I'd rather stomp them hurt them stomp
Stomp them while I dance dance dance
I hurt them while I dance dance dance
I stomp them while I dance dance dance
I hurt them while I dance dance dance
I stomp them while I dance dance dance
I hurt them while I dance dance dance
Those insects make me want to dance

Insects make me scream and shout
They don't know what life's about
They don't have blood
They've got too many legs
They don't have brains in their heads

They know they'll rule the world some day
They bite and sting me anyway

They bite and sting and suck
They bite and sting and suck suck suck
They bite and sting and suck suck suck
They bite and sting and suck
They bite and sting and suck suck suck
They bite and sting and suck
They bite and sting and suck suck suck

Dance dance dance
Those insects make me
