

Oi Polloi "The Right To Choose"

Are we to go back to the days of victoria will we so easily surrender the gains we made so far back to an age of repression hypocassy and lies forced into the back streets as another freedom dies No! no return to the back streets Christian fundamentalist right wing nutter claim to respect life soon show their true colours abortion clinic doctor gunned down in the street is this the sanctity of life they claimed to belief No! no return to the back streets Thousands more will die back street abortion the bloody human consequenses if we do not resist the bombings and the terror well what do you think your future as a breeding sow chained to the kitchen sink Fight or loose the right to choose
