Visit "Detached" on MotoLyrics.com

Sitting in the dining room, surrounded by all these fools

Laughing along and putting on, the greatest show theyâ€™ve ever known

But I canâ€™t take it anymore, struggling hard to endure

Will this feeling ever subside cause Iâ€™m dying inside

Maybe they all feel the same

Maybe Iâ€™m just like them

Maybe theyâ€™re fuck ups just like me

Or maybe it might just only be me

Turn it off and shut them out, donâ€™t know what theyâ€™re all about

I like to be alone, left to ponder on my own

Theyâ€™re only faces to me, part of a picture gallery

For a crowd is not company, at least not the one that I need
