Tommy's crawling on the floor, thinking of a way to score

He tried his best to stay away, but the abstinence won today

Well, you see he never meant no harm

His head is large but it's full of charm

But when a junkie needs drugs he'll try any trick, anything for a fucking fix

Yeah, well it's not my problem, yeah well it's not my problem

Yeah, well it's not my problem, hell no it's not my problem

Tommy's lurking in the dark, waiting, fading in the park

He's been at the mall all day, shoplifting to earn his pay

Numb and cold and dehumanized

Haggard and unrecognized

Shooting junk in the early morning, hell at least life aint boring

Tommy's crawling on the floor, thinking of a way to score

He tried his best to stay away, but the abstinence won today

Numb and cold and dehumanized

Haggard and unrecognized

Shooting junk in the early morning, hell at least life aint boring
