

Joint Aktion "Songs Of Freedom"

Visit "Songs Of Freedom" on MotoLyrics.com

Sitting in my cramped apartment together with my friends Enjoying another summer night while the sun never sets Drinking all my father's liqueur and howling at the moon Enraging all neighbours, dancing in the living room

Talking about all our dreams, high on life and dopamine
Writing poetry and singing songs of freedom Passing out on the floor, poisoned by the alcohol Playing "Live Forever" on the stereo

Running out of cigarettes in the middle of the night Headed to the El Bocado getting dragged into a fight Waking up and feeling like your heart's beating in your head
Last night I ruled the world but now it feels like I'm dead
