feat. Royce Da 59

[Hook]

I do this shit for who?

My city, my hood, my click, my town

My city, my hood, my click, my town

My city, my hood, my click, my town

My city, my hood, my click, my town

Real nigga say something, real nigga say something

While the fake motherfuckers stay quiet

Real nigga say something, real nigga say something

While the fake motherfuckers stay quiet

Real nigga say something, real nigga say something

While the fake motherfuckers stay quiet

I do this shit for who?

Look, fuck nigga be quiet, where them real niggas at

Go and point em out

Fly city, if a nigga talk shit, shit else to talk about

Word, you probably wanna reconsider your image when you in city limits

I figure a nigga wanna catch a you living a raw opportunity

Like you came in when you in a city of niggas that really did it

Its that shit, niggas wish they could bottle it up

Now my motto is aint a motherfucker following us

Give me a medal, nobody hot as me, give me a shovel

So I can dig my way to hell so I can battle the devil

Who on my level hoe, guess we will never know

Cause I be murdering everybody, you put up on a pedestal

Better but get better with every flow

Michigan niggas, nobody coming with better flow, niggas know

[Hook]

My city, my hood, my click, my town

My city, my hood, my click, my town

My city, my hood, my click, my town

My city, my hood, my click, my town
Real nigga say something, real nigga say something
While the fake motherfuckers stay quiet
Real nigga say something, real nigga say something
While the fake motherfuckers stay quiet
Real nigga say something, real nigga say something
While the fake motherfuckers stay quiet
I do this shit for who?
My city, my hood, my click, my town
Its time to let these niggas know

That Im special, yall motherfuckers basics,
Yall walk around wearing 86
Me, I walk around in my 2s and my 3s on my jays shit
Both jays, listenin to 99 problems with 99 problems
And each one of them is fake bitch
See, thats how a nigga get when a nigga go
From being real broke to getting fake rich
Ok, you get no breaks, in the city of Detroit
Unless you breaking up this
If it wasnt for my instagram, I feel like I be waking up everyday
Wasting outfits
So feel me, cause Im felt as fuck and Im never with the clown shit
If I ever look down on the next man
It was just for a second, when I helped him up
So the next second get down bitch

[Hook]

My city, my hood, my click, my town
My city, my hood, my click, my town
My city, my hood, my click, my town
My city, my hood, my click, my town
Real nigga say something, real nigga say something
While the fake motherfuckers stay quiet
Real nigga say something, real nigga say something
While the fake motherfuckers stay quiet
Real nigga say something, real nigga say something
While the fake motherfuckers stay quiet
I do this shit for who?
My city, my hood, my click, my town
Its time to let these niggas know.
