Bricks in the building, rose ain't splashing
Bricks in the cabinet, cause never maxing
Bricks in the cabinet, cause never maxing
Bricks in the building, rose ain't splashing
Bricks in the building, rose ain't splashing

We're in the building, rose ain't splashing
Rose ain't splashing, rose, rose ain't
We're in the building, rose ain't splashing
Rose ain't splashing, rose, rose ain't
Bricks in the cabinet, cause never maxing

Yeah, all my niggas winning, like yeah, nigga we did it
Ball hard on you niggas like I'm about to win the penny!
Self-disrespect while all the hoes, they let me hit it
In the presidential suit getting more head than Bill Clinton
Then I holler at my niggas in Vegas, just to shit on the haters
A five star restaurant speaking by eating the waitress
She like, boy, you're so nasty, I get that a lot
Ya stop fronting, let me know if we did fuck it or not.
Wait! Get up girl out here to bring the bottles over
With an ass like that' spend a couple dollars on it
I'm in H town, tear that chick with her face down
That ' straight, I hear home base and everything,
'more ways down
That nigga, you fuck around with that nigga
Your girl gave me the same ass, same head,
You're the one that is still with it.
But, shit I can't blame you, cause your girl has that killer
Worst night of your life is one of them nights I barely remember cause
