Yo, my verses take them back to back in the day
I spit that crack that have them back in a day
Now they back in a way
Verses burn like after shaved up
New nigga with a spirit that's fearless
Clasp but myself, I'm peerless, sharp mind
And the flow is ...
Piercing like the second they felt it that they feeling helpless
You buzzing I'm the repellant, these hollows
You shooting pellets
Yellow tape round every song I make Better brace yourself nigga take these hits
Because that's all I make They feeling soar, you feeling weak, then you gonna feel it more
Cause now that I'm in the door, this is a war That's gonna lead your Fuck morning intercourse, what I'm in it for?
You do this for the recognition
I do it cause I got drive that wreck the engine Move me to the next division
You testing me that ain't the best decision
You better invest in living,
Cause what I'm spitting will have, you and death committed
Now how is that for a committed relationship
You hate this shit, I'm here not, and they don't know what to make of it
It's Connor

[Hook] x 2

I'm going all in, but that what I do
Niggas already know what my flow like
That's what I do
That whole life, niggas be so high
That's what I do
So imagine what my show like
What my show, my show like

No weakness, on my job, 24/7 no weekends

Go to war with me, this shit gonna be the last of the Mohicans
I'm the future that's versus psychic read,
And fuck it as ...y'all sweet niggas with a mike and
...dominion
If I dominion, I'ma show you nothing's parallel, welcome to hell's carrousel
I can tell, what you be like, y'all niggas is wounds that ain't heal right
Actors on track, but I'm killing they career when it's real like
Now back up, cause I don't need backup I'm making them pack up, like they going on a trip in that black truck
They ain't coming back from Now leave it up to me to save the day
I paved the way for my city, and cut from the same cloth
Homie I'm taylor made
Shoot shots at me, to see if they could take grenades
Whole squads getting ...i'm blazing like every phrase Funny to see I'm sweating cause I keep on dropping hot shit
Only mission for me is to lock this hip hop shit Connor!

[Hook] x 2
I'm going all in, but that what I do
Niggas already know what my flow like
That's what I do
That whole life, niggas be so high
That's what I do
So imagine what my show like
What my show, my show like

Now everybody put them hands up, palms out
Bounce for that real shit
One time for the real put them hands up, palms out
Bounce for that real shit
One time for the real
They keep saying they niggars, so I get on
They keep saying they niggars, so I get on.
