Oh, yeah
You got me, yeah
Oh, yeah
You got me, yeah

Girl you didn't know
You just caught me on
Baby you should take your time with me
In my world

There's no looking back
With me as your man
We're gonna show the world what you were hiding
All this time

No regrets of thinking about you
Just all about you
And no regrets of missing you it's just
All about you 'cause

I just can't get over you
I just can't explain this thing to you
I just can't resist this feeling you
Got me falling over you

I just can't get over you
I just can't explain this thing to you
I just can't resist this feeling you
Got me falling over you

Hey girl, keep it coming on Hey girl, baby you should take your time with me in my world

No regrets of thinking about you
Just all about you
And no regrets of missing you it's just
All about you 'cause

~f
I just can't get over you
I just can't explain this thing to you

I just can't resist this feeling you
Got me falling over you
I just can't get over you
I just can't explain this thing to you
I just can't resist this feeling you
Got me falling over you

Yeah I know that this will take much
But baby I know we can make it through

I just can't get over you
I just can't explain this thing to you
I just can't resist this feeling you
Got me falling over you
I just can't get over you
I just can't explain this thing to you
I just can't resist this feeling you
Got me falling over you

Oh, yeah
You got me, yeah
Oh, yeah
You got me, yeah
