Been running this highway like a greyhound
Ain't nothing left for me to see
And sometimes I just wish that I could break down
And get on back to you and me
Take the next flight
And leave this crazy life
Get back home in time to kiss you goodnight

And ohhh lately all I think about
Ohhh is what we could be doing now
Ohhh baby
Here I go again
Missin' you crazy

Sittin' here listenin' to your sweet voice
Talking on the telephone
It's making me realize I ain't got no choice
Between staying here or getting gone

I'm gonna say goodbye
Yeah I'm gonna fly
Get these arms of mine back where they belong

And ohhh lately all I think about
Ohhh is what we could be doing now
Ohhh baby
Here I go again
Missin' you crazy
Yeah

And ohhh lately all I think about
Ohhh is what we could be doing now
Ohhh baby
Here I go again

Ohhh baby
Here I go again
Missin' you crazy

Missin' you crazy
