harmonica

I picked up all the pieces of my heart cause everyone's been steppin on it and i don't want that no well you won't find me searching for my soul cause i don't need it anymore and i don't need to love and its fine by me yeah its alright with me
if you go as long as you are happy and its cool with me yeah its alright with me just don't keep leading me on

every time that we hang out my heart is filled with hope and doubt cause i don't know where i stand and every time you check you're phone i feel so far away and alone cause i dont stand a chance and its hard for me yeah its hard for me to watch you get you're heart stomped its hard for me yeah its hard for me to be stuck in-between

well i am not a math whiz but i do know that triangles are specific for geometry and you say that you like me thats plus one plus you is two but you love her and that makes three but we do it again yeah.
