Remember the days when you held me tight
In love and it felt so right
Those days are gone but I'm still in love Never give up cause I need your touch

I'm prayin you'll run back to me

I'll always love you more slide past and hold your door
I see your beauty
more than they do
No matter what you put me through I'll always love you

I see how they gaze into your eyes
You know they don't fool me how hard they try You know it will never be what we had Come back and give me one more chance

I'm prayin you'll run back to me

I'll always love you more
slide past and hold your door
I see your beauty
more than they do
No matter what you put me through
I'll always love you

When you're lost and you've got nothing left oh, when you're tired and you've tried all else

I'll always love you more
slide past and hold your door
I see your beauty
more than they do
No matter what you put me through...

I'll always love you more
slide past and hold your door
I see your beauty
more than they do
No matter what you put me through

I'll always love you
