

Josh Osho"Saved Me Ft Etta Bond"

Visit "Saved Me Ft Etta Bond" on MotoLyrics.com

I don't know what I would do
Live this life, without you
I've tried a couple of times to see
I'm drowning, lightly
I smile at all our photos
That frame that keeps me focused
I keep the buttons closed, and when I feel exposed Work hard... our payment, and yet your bench still empty
You ignore the day

But know I won't forget, when the rain kept coming
And the floods kept running
I was losing ground
And you saved me
When the game ain't... and the force start bluffing
And you stand you ground and you saved me

You protect me from the rain, do you stay, just to go
If the tables choose to turn, I'll show you
All I've learned
Familiar kisses many, and the when the cup half empty
You keep the balance baby
If ever I'm afraid
You check under my bed babe, show me a life less scary
If ever I'm afraid
No, I won't forget

When the rain kept coming
And the floods kept running
I was losing ground
And you saved me
When the game ain't... and the force start bluffing
And you stand you ground and you saved me

Whoa, oh, oh, whoa, whoa, before the rain, rain, rain.

Visit Josh Osho page on MotoLyrics.com, to get more lyrics and videos.
