Swing for me child, swing for a while.
Promised I'd be there, when it's all gone.
Cold embrace your head against my weakness,
one day you and I will become one.

But oh, was it just another page to be broken,
I never thought of it that way.
Do you toss and turn in your bed with every regret spoken?
I, I might have gone black and white.

You can run, run run in the day, but at night, find me.
Run run run in the day, but at night,
find your child dreams of perfect love
you holding me up, they've gone now,
they've gone now, they've gone.

But, oh was it just another page to be broken?
I never thought of it that way. Do you toss and turn in your bed with every regret spoken? I might have gone black and white.

Do you toss and turn in your bed with every regret spoken? I might have gone black and white.
