Every night, I hear you describe
The perfect love you wanna share
You sing your songs and toss your hair
And I picture me there

I'm not Stephen
I could never be mean
And you sing about the things you need
He's right there in your melodies
The prince of your dreams

I know that I'm that guy
I'll be in your dreams tonight
Taylor, just close your eyes

You want someone fearless
Who leaves you breathless
Who'll be your fairytale come true
Knock down every wall for you
And that's what I'll do

I know that I'm that guy
I'll be in your dreams tonight
Taylor, just close your eyes

And dream about the day
We're standing face to face
That's when you'll see
Your destiny

I know that I'm that guy
I'll be in your dreams tonight
Taylor, just close your eyes
