

Jozi Bently "Country Girl"

Visit "Country Girl" on MotoLyrics.com

I ain't no inbred
Maybe my neck is red
I watch TV in bed 'Cause I'm a pot
Calling the kettle black
Driving my Cadillac
That's got a gun rack
'Cause I'm country

I may not like to drink
I like my brain to think
My camo pants are pink
But I can raise a
Whole lotta holy hell
I got a rebel yell
I may not shoot too well
But I'm country

'Cause I got a heart of gold
The Stars and Stripes on my flagpole
I may look just a bit like I'm rock 'n roll
But don't you tell me I ain't a country girl

I ain't afraid of dirt
Not on my flannel shirt
But I can wear a skirt
And I know how to
Have me a little fun
Cuz I can get er done
Don't look so stunned
Cuz I'm country

You know I must admit
I like to chew and spit
Maybe party a bit
Even know
My Momma's name is 'ma'am
Daddy did Vietnam
Might be Republican
But I'm American

'Cause I got a heart of gold
The Stars and Stripes on my flagpole

I may look just a bit like I'm rock 'n roll
But don't you tell me I ain't a country girl

Don't need some dual e truck
That cost me megabucks
I make my own luck
But then I like to
Stand here beside my man
And show just what I am
Check out my farmer tan
Ya know I'm hot, man

'Cause I got a heart of gold
The Stars and Stripes on my flagpole
I may look just a bit like I'm rock 'n roll
But don't you tell me I ain't a country girl

'Cause I got a heart of gold
My blood's red, white and blue in my deepest soul
I skinny dip at night down at the swimming hole
So don't you tell me I ain't country

I got a heart of gold
The Stars and Stripes on my flagpole
I may look just a bit like I'm rock 'n roll
So don't you tell me I ain't a country girl

Visit Jozi Bently page on MotoLyrics.com, to get more lyrics and videos.