A ruby red sunset is fadin' in the sky
It's givin' me a feelin' like this could be the night
I can't wait to see your smilin' eyes smile at me
Everything about you girl makes my heart skip a beat

Woah, dancin' soft and slow
Woah, to the rhythm of the radio

I love the way the twilight paints upon your skin
The way your hair falls after wavin' in the wind
We'll cruise around, roll on down the abandoned railroad tracks
Hold each other in the golden rays of my Daddy's old
Cadillac

Woah, dancin' soft and slow
Woah, to the rhythm of the radio
Woah, losin' our control
Woah, to the rhythm of the radio

Movin' to the music
Movin' through you and me
Never gonna lose it, this sweet memory

Woah, dancin' soft and slow
Whoah, woah, dancin' soft and slow
Woah, to the rhythm of the radio

Woah, losin' all control
Woah, to the rhythm of the radio
The rhythm of the radio
The rhythm of the radio
