Verse 1:

Lay awake in the sand,
whispering our intimate plans,
to make it to forever and back again

I open my eyes to see our whole world fading,
And I've been living lies cuz they're all I have

Chorus:

So long,
To smiles and summers now that You're gone,
You left me to myself
It's all wrong,
Never forget who we are
We sing our song to remember

I wasn't ready to grow up just yet,
The choice was yours and your heart is set,
To run away and never look back again.

This crystal lense is shattered now my whole world's fading
into the shadows of the light

Chorus:
