So sexy
looks like an angel those turquoise eyes have so much to say It bluffs a touch that blossoms the chastity that I'm about to give away

If you want love I'll undress my soul in this and down out my composure slobbering your kiss
Tell my I'm the one you can't resist

Come undone to show me the loneliness of being two In you I'll build a home cause your turquoise is what makes me feel much less blue
