Well, at first there was
There was just no question
Who wouldn't rather be their reflection
But when I got here everything was cold and perfect
But when I got here everything was cold and perfect

It was clear and bright
Like midwinter sunlight
My heartbeat counting down a moment precise and quiet
I look out and saw my own reflection helpless
I look out and saw him overwhelmed and helpless

[Chorus:]
Oh what have I done, what have I done
Oooooo (Oh) what have I done
Oohhhh what have I done
My God, what have I done
Oooo (OH) what have I done
Ooh what have I done

As time went on
You could feel a silence
Solidifying the sound of my thoughts and paralyzing
I tried to call out to him but the glass was perfect
I tried to call out to him but the glass was perfect

[Chorus:]
Oh what have I done, what have I done
Oooooo (Oh) what have I done
Oohhhh what have I done
My God, what have I done
Oh what goods pleading
To get what you want
Ooh to get you want
Oh what have I done

[Repeat x4:]
Every day is the same
We're praying for rain
And when it finally came
And when it came

Everyday was the same
Still praying for rain

Everday is the same
We're praying for rain
And when it finally came
And when it came
Everyday was the same
