J's locked out on the fire escape
Sarah's still down on the bench at the Circle K
Cryin' and cryin' all day
And everybody's best attempts didn't do no good

No sign of life, no sign of life, no sign of life, no sign
But I got a hunch, oh, it's not over yet, oh, it's not over
yet

Kate broke down on Division Street
Ooh, air so wet you can hear your heart beat
And beat, and beat, and beat, and beat
I swear I gave it my best shot, what else could I do?

No sign of life, no sign of life, no sign of life, no sign
But I got a hunch, oh, it's not over yet, oh, it's not over

Oh, J's locked out on the fire escape
Oh, Sarah's still down on the bench at the Circle K
Cryin' and cryin' all day
And everybody's best attempts couldn't do no good

No sign of life, no sign of life, no sign of life, no sign
But I got a hunch, oh, it's not over yet, oh, it's not over

Oh, it's not over yet, oh, it's not over yet
Oh, it's not over yet, oh, it's not over yet
