First time I laid my eyes on someone like you I can't forget the hour, that moment with you Then I have realized, love is growing deep inside
I feel the beating of my heart

Chorus:

Coz' every day, every night, I keep looking at the skies
And I'll pray that someday you will wake up in my arms
And love will never end
We belong together, always and forever
Call my name and I'll be there. . . .

Spending my days and nights just thinking of you How you make me wanna smile with the things that you do
When will I hear you say, love is coming on your way
And that you start to feel the same

Chorus:

Coz' every day, every night, I keep looking at the
skies
And I'll pray that someday you will wake up in my
arms
And love will never end
We belong together, always and forever
Call my name and I'll be there

Chorus 2:

Coz' every day, every night, I keep looking at the
skies
And I'll pray that someday you will wake up in my
arms
Coz' every day, every night, I keep looking at the
skies
And I'll pray that someday you will wake up in my
arms
And love will never end

We belong together, always and forever
Call my name and I'll be there
